

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

I Am Malala Parts IV & V Questions

Directions: While reading I Am Malala: Young Readers Edition, answer each question completely using textual evidence and complete, logical sentences.

Part Four: Targeted

1. Why did the Taliban make a proclamation of their threat against Malala's life?
2. The week that Malala is shot, there are three bad omens that occur. Please list all of them:

1.
2.
3.

3. Explain what happens when Malala is shot. Use details from the text.

Part Five: A New Life, Far From Home

1. Where was Malala's father when he received word that she had been shot?
2. Even though most people would've been flattered to see so many dignitaries arrive at the hospital to check on Malala, how does her father feel?

3. While Malala was in the hospital, the Taliban issued a statement. What was it?
4. Why were the British doctors intent on moving Malala?
5. Why didn't Malala's father accompany her to England?
6. What are the first two questions that Malala has when she awakens?
7. Why were people, in the hospital, not allowed to tell Malala things or bring in newspapers?
8. How are Malala's features different when she wakes up in Birmingham?
9. What one material possession did Malala want while she was in the hospital?
10. Why didn't Malala's legs work properly when she got up to walk around?
11. Why is Malala's father so upset when he sees what the Taliban have done to his daughter?

12. What day was declared Malala Day by the United Nations?

13. How do people in the U.K., like Mr. Zardari and Gordon Brown, make things easier for Malala's family?

14. Why does Malala feel that God spared her– gave her a second life?

15. Why is Malala's mother unhappy in England?

16. Why is Malala's father unhappy living in the U.K.?

17. Why does Malala say that she likes England?

18. Fill in the blanks: " One _____, one _____, one _____ and one _____ can change the world."

19. What does Malala say is her final wish?