Harriet Tubman Narrative Assignment

Directions: Using details from Harriet Tubman and other readings in class, write a narrative about a trip on the Underground Railroad with Harriet Tubman as your guide.

Guidelines:
- You are writing this through Harriet Tubman’s perspective and the narrative will be in first-person point of view (I, me, my, we, our, etc.).
- Include details about:
  1. your life on the plantation before becoming a conductor. Where is it located? You are welcome to complete additional research for this narrative.
  2. the plantation are you going to conduct fugitives from. How did you choose the fugitives to go with you on the journey?
  3. the signs that you (Harriet Tubman) are coming to a plantation.
  4. the journey north (including dates, stops, historical figures, problems, etc.)
  5. your trip destination and outcome
- MLA format will be followed for heading, font, and spacing. Citing textual evidence for this assignment is not required nor a works cited page.
- You have creative freedom in how this narrative is presented.
  1. Various dates and entries
  2. One longer narrative like Harriet Tubman: Conductor on the Underground Railroad
  3. Informal language that is appropriate for school and in the vernacular of a fugitive of that time period
  4. Please limit your narrative to no more than 2 pages double-spaced.
  5. Be sure to consider the following questions in your narrative:
